built a hospital at Wallace and adopted the rule that a dollar per month instead of being paid to the companies should be paid to the hospital. The Bunker Hill & Sullivan company refused to recognize the justice of this rule and a strike resulted in favor of the miners. Smith claims the re-duction of wages then followed.

MOVEMENTS OF THE TROOPS. Meld Back All Thursday For Fear of Dynamite Special Dispatch to the Standard.

WARDNER, Idaho, July 14 .- The town and vicinity is quiet. Early this morn ing sensational rumors were current to the effect that certain citizens were being ordered by the union to leave town. Som of these men were seen by the STANDAR! correspondent and said they had received no such orders. About 8 o'clock General Carlin with his command moved from Cataldo. He had remained at Cataldo up to this time, as Manager Clement of Bunker Hill and Sullivan telephoned him yester day morning begging him to remain until the non-union men were cut of the country as they would be killed if the military appeared. He desired also to get sufficient reinforcements to enable him to move through without stopping when he started. Yes-terday he was reinforced by five national guard companies, and this morning when he knew that five companies of the Fourteenth United States infantry from the Vancouver barracks were just behind him. he started. His action certainly prevented an armed collision and bloodshed, for had he undertaken to bring in the troops yes terday morning while the union men were here and in arms, there would have been trouble. General Carlin's command arrived here about 9 o'clock. An bour later the battalon of the Fourteenth passed through and went on to Osborne.

General Carlin received two telegrams from Wallace saying that citizens were being driven out of town and asking for troops. He sent forward two companies of the Fourteenth infantry, company D of the Fourth infantry and company M and L, Idaho national guard. The troops now here are companies A, F and H, Fourteenth infantry, and three companies of the national guard. They have gone into camp in the ball grounds near the Union Pacific depot. The three companies of Twenty-fifth in-fantry from Fort Missoula who were stopped above Mullan by the destruction of bidge were ordered back to Missoula to come here by way of Spokane. Three companies of the 22nd infantry have been ordered from Fort Keogh, Mont., and three companies from Fort Spokane and will reach here as soon as possible.

The country is now under martial law and the governor has declared the union men to be in rebellion. Persons arrested now for participation in unlawful proceedings will either be tried by court martial or sent out of the country where they can be tried fairly.

Captain Stevenson of Company A, National Guard, and his company who were sent early this morning by General Carlin from Cataldo to investigate an alleged massacre of non-union men near Old Mis sion returned here at 1:40. They had learned of the killing of a man named Abbott, but had not had time to go into Fourth of July canyon, where a dozen men were reported killed, as they had orders to return on the regular train.

Troops from Fort Spokane and Fore Missoula arrived to-night and were sent into camp. The Fort Missoula men have the pleasantest camp grounds here. It is reported that the United States marshal will now proceed to make arrests for contempt of court in not observing the in-junctions, and it is also said that the nonunion men will shortly be brought back here and put to work.

Claims It Was Exaggerated. By Associated Press

WALLACE, July 14.—Everything is quiet. The miners returned to the various mines last night and work in several mines was resumed this morning. The Grantte mine was visited by a delegation of miners last night and the non-union men were brought down and ordered out of the district. The best information obtainable is to the effect that the reports of the massacre at Old Mission have been greatly exaggerated, only one man it is claimed being killed and be accidentally.

[This is the associated press dispatch. That service of late has differed in essential particulars from the dispatches which have been sent to many newspapers by special reporters stationed in the Coeur d'Alenes. The affair near Mission happened Wednesday night and the report of it was sent out to many newspapers; but for some reason no associated press tele gram came from the Cocur d'Alenes with reference to the affair until this morning's rather tardy dispatch. Yesterday morning's Spokane papers give with much greater detail the story of the massacre at Mission which appeared in the STANDARD's special edition of yesterday. The STANDARD has in the Cocur d'Alene camps three of its most trustworthy reporters. All three of them have been constantly in the employ of this office at full time since the STANDARD was a few weeks old, as regular reporters in daily service. They are good men, they have no motive for sending any false tes-timony, they certainly have no prejudice. Two of these men, stationed at points some miles apart, learned, Wednesday night, the story of the Mission busi-ness from witnesses of it and from the direct personal testimony of partici-pants in it. Each wired the news without consultation with the other, and their stories agree in all important particulars. Of course, no attempt was made to state with accuracy the number of the dead that could not then be learned. The STANDARD is aiming to be scrupulously careful in reporting the news from the scene of trouble in Idaho. We print the regular associated press dispatches, alregular associated press dispatches, although, like several others of recent sending, this one differs strongly from news otherwise received. The STANDARD would rejoice, with all its readers, to know that the stories regarding the shooting at Mission were unfounded, but, with confirmation at hand for what was printed yesterday, we believe the above associated press telegrams to be flagrantly false.]

Troops in Possession. WALLACE, July 14.—The bridges be-tween here and Mullan have been repaired and trains are running on time. An appeal has been made for a congressional investigation into the Two companies of United States infantry and two companies of state militia arrived at noon and were distributed throughout the town. Ward-ner is almost described except for the mili-tary now occupying the place. All signs of trouble have disappeared. Everything is quiet and the miners say the troops are welcome. Campanies "B," "C," "D," "E" and "F" of the Fourteenth infantry will arrive to-night. General Curtis of Idaho national guards says he advised the gover-nor that martial law this afternoon was promulgated and troops distributed throughout the district and that lives and property will be protected at the first sign of trouble. The military will work no hardships on peaceable citizens and as soon as the country is restored to a nor-mal condition the troops will leave.

Threatened to Blow Up a Bank. This morning a number of non-union men came down from the Granite mine to be paid off and leave the country. They went into the Wallace bank to get their checks cashed, but a number of strikers marched boidly into the bank and hustled them out and ordered them to leave town. They hurried to the depot and got on the train. The strikers then marched back to the bank and told the officials there if all the non-union men were not out of town in an hour the bank would be blown up with dynamite

Ordering People Out of Town. The excitement is intense and the miners become more arrogant. Commitces waited upon several people and told tees waited upon several people and told them to leave town. Among those called upon were the clerk of the Pacific hotel, the manager of Holley, Mason, Marks & Co., and other prominent people. Mayor Dunn hurried a message to General Carlin and troops were hurried into the town before all semblance of reason had fled. The message was no sooner wired than one of the strikers came to the telegraph offlee and drawing a rifle on the operator, ordered him to send to more messages to Wardner. Troops no more messages to Wardner. Troops are now here and the people are thankful once more for the safeguards of society which are never fully appreciated until abey are gone.

A BATTLE PREDICTED.

All Newspaper Men in Wardner Said To

Be Prisoners. SPOKANE, July 14.—A special received ere says a large body of armed miners left Wallace this morning and were joined by an equally large force of armed strikers from Mullan. The party intends to intrench themselves in Mullan and await the arrival of the colored troops now en route from Missoula to Wardner. On the arrival of the soldiers in the defile, the miners will surround them. A bloody battle is inevitable. All newspaper men are virtually prisoners at Wardner and unable to send dispatches. Nearly all the business men of Wardner suspected of antiumonism have been driven out of town by the strikers and are now in the hills. The mme owners and their ropresentatives are in danger of their lives in Wallace. The report is corroborated of the massa-cre of non-union miners at Mission by strikers who were conducting them out of the country. Twelve are known to be killed. Among the number is Monhan, superintendent of the Gem mine, whose body was terribly mangled. A score of refugees from the Mission slaughter straggled into town today. They present a pitiable appearance with torn clothes and bruised bodies. They confirmed the story of the slaughter.

Troops Requested to Keep Out.

Special Dispatch to the Standard CATALDO, July 14, 9 a. m.—Companies of Idaho militia under command of General Curtis and a regiment of regulars from Coeur d'Alene City under command of General Carlin, are camped here awaiting developments at Wardner. The mine owners at Wardner have sent a reques not to forward troops as the strikers threaten to blow up the mills upon the ad-vent of the troops.

At Osborne.

OSBORNE, July 14.—Five companies of the Fourteenth United States infantry, Colonel Thraker in command, arrived here at 11 o'clock from Vancouver. Now that the non-union men have left the country and the union has virtually disbanded it is considered safe for the troops to proceed to Waltace CONFIRMED AT WARDNER. Wounded Men Tell the Story of the Attack on the Party. From Yesterday's Extra Addition.

WARDNER, July 14 .- A fight between union and non-union miners occurred at the Old Mission, about 14 miles from here, late Wednesday night. A number of non-union miners from the Gem and Frisco mines were put aboard the box cars on the narrow gauge railway and left in charge of a guard appointed by the Miners' union people.

When they reached the Mission the non-union men were headed down the valley and ordered to get out of the country. They started off at double quick and soon dispersed in all directions along the soon dispersed in an directions along the rivers and in the hills. The unfortunate fellows were badly frightened and pretty well tired out when they were turned adrift in the wilderness. In a short time several rifle shots were heard, and the report reached the village that the union men had attacked the non-union men whom they had agreed to guard in safety out of the country. This rumor was confirmed when several unfortunate fugitives arrived at the home of a rancher on the opposite side of the river covered with mud and dripping with water. They said they had been escorted to a lonely spot and had been fired upon without warning. The men scattered in all directions, and many to evade their pursuers plunged into the river and swam across morning several men who had been fired upon arrived at Cataldo, where the troops were camped. They were covered with mud and soaking wet

One of the men, Percy A. Sommers, was seen by a STANDARD reporter. He was in a very dilapidated condition. He said that the union men had fired upon him and his companions without warning. The firing occurred about 10 o'clock last night. Sommers jumped into the river and swam to a small island in the middle of the stream where he remained all night. Wednesday morning he swam to the opposite shore and made his way into the military camp. He says that his companion, John Monahan, late superintendent of the Gem mine, was shot after he jumped into the river and badly wounded. Sommers says several men were shot and probably others were drowned.

But few people here were inclined to be-dieve that the firing had occurred at the Mission until this afternoon brought confirmation of the rumor. Monahan taken through here to the hospital at Wellace. He had been shot through the breast by a rifle ball.

A Church Sociable.

BUTTE. July 14 .- To-night the ladies of the Presbyterian church gave one of their delightful sociables. That form of dissipation so strongly indulged at all mid-summer church festivals, ice cream and strawberries was not overlooked, but on the contrary formed one of the chief temptations resorted to lure the small change from the pockets of the male visi-tors. Vocal and instrumental music, reci-tations and charades were part of the pro-gramme and added a good deal to the pleasure of the affair.

AT AN END.

The Last Act in the Weins'ela-Hell-benner War-Police Court News. The Last Act in the Weins'ela-Heilbenner War-Police Court News.

Butte, July 14.—The Weinstein-Heilbenner war was brought to a close in the police court to-day. Dove Weinstein was discharged, it appearing that he had acted only in the capacity of a peacemaker. Weinstein pleaded guilty of having biffed Heilbenner on the jaw and then depleted his exclicquer to the extent of $10 and costs, the amount of his fine. Heilbenner stood confronted by two charges of disturbing the peace and considered his case as desperate enough to warrant him in engaging an attorney. The evidence was all in his favor, and before the case was over the trial had really changed from a criminal action to a civil proceeding, which the judge declared was not exactly regular and dismissed the defendant on both complaints.

James Kiley, who, when arrested last week, attempted to wipe the earth with Officer McSuggan, pleaded guitty to assault and battery and was fined $10 and costs. Kiley was arrested for disturbing the peace and then set upon the officer and beat and kicked him. To-day's fine was for striking the officer.

Robert Dolan, a vag, was fined $10 and costs for begging money on the streets, and Moritz Meyer, tried yesterday, was taxed a like amount for unnecessarily disturbing the peace. His attorney gave notice of an appeal.

Nellie Doyle, for fast driving and making "a holy show of herself," was fined $10 and costs, and Joe Harris, charged with disturbing the peace, was dismissed.
